

Geauga County Genealogical Society

PROGRAM SCHEDULE FALL 2023

12 September in person “Gauga County Historical Societies” Join us for a panel presentation on resources of 6 Gauga County Historical Societies – Middlefield Historical Society, Huntsburg Historical Society, the Chesterland Historical Foundation, Bainbridge Twp. Historical Society, Burton Century Village Museum, and the Gauga Amish Historical Library. Each representative will give a short presentation on their mission. Come at 6:30 for a half hour of socializing. The presentation starts at approximately 7:30 pm, after the monthly Genealogical Society meeting at 7:00 pm.

Click here to register

<https://geaugalibrary.libcal.com/event/10803041>

10 October via Zoom “Genealogical Resources of the Cleveland Public Library” Terry Metter will share little-known genealogy resources available. Presentation to start at approximately 7:30 pm following the Genealogical Society monthly meeting at 7:00 pm.

Click here to register

<https://geaugalibrary.libcal.com/event/10803089>

14 November in person In honor of Veteran's Day, Cheryl McClellan will discuss various military records and show memorabilia from some of our members' photos and personal effects. Presentation starts at approximately 7:30 pm following the Genealogical Society monthly meeting at 7:00 pm.

Click here to register

<https://geaugalibrary.libcal.com/event/10803100>

12 December in person Annual Holiday Gathering. Open to members and their guests only.

Meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month in Chardon Library's Bostwick Room beginning at 7:00 PM followed by the program, unless otherwise noted. Questions? Email genpresident@gmail.com; or check your local newspaper for up-to-date information.