

Geauga County Genealogical Society

Programs Coming Fall 2022

13 September 2022 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM

“What’s New in the Anderson Allyn Room at Chardon Library?”

Learn what is in the Anderson Allyn History and Genealogy Room at the Chardon Branch. Melissa Cole and Lynn Vandevort, Family and Local History Specialists for the Geauga County Public Library, will talk about the myriad resources – both digital and hard copy format - available and how they can be used to research your family or local history subject.

Held at the Geauga County Public Library – Chardon Branch, Bostwick Room, 110 East Park, Chardon, OH 44024

11 October 2022 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM

“U.S. Presidents and their Resting Places”

Presenter David Lelko

Dave will take us through a fun, interactive presentation of “Final Resting Places of most of the U.S. Presidents”.

Held at the Geauga County Public Library – Chardon Branch, Bostwick Room, 110 East Park, Chardon, OH 44024

08 November 2022 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM

“Case of the Missing Will”

Presenter Shelley Bishop, Buckeye Family Trees

1870 Illinois resident James Taylor was born in Ohio—but where and to whom? No will, probate, death record, obituary, or other record names his parents. This case study illustrates how indirect evidence drawn from extensive research in a variety of sources was analyzed and correlated to identify his father and long-deceased mother, as well as locate his place of birth.

Held virtually via Zoom. Watch for more information to register when it becomes available.
